Tom, it was a God Blessing to have met and known you. To Family and Friends who are still hurting, put it all in God's hands. Time will heal all wounds. Remember the good times and try to move on. God is a keeper.Your smile will live on forever.

Mrs. Vennell, Michael, Stephen and Mrs. Sheila
I know your hearts are heavy, but remember weeping endures for a night but joy comes in the morning. Pray and ask God to give you peace and the strength to get through this difficult time. God will hear your cry. As the minutes, the hours and days go by, things will get better. It is important to remember the good times you shared as a family. Tom had a big heart, almost to a fault but he believed by giving to others, his blessings would return twice fold. Tom was a link in your family's chain. Now that he is at rest, the chain has been broken. As a family, you must pick up the broken chain and try to mend it back together. It will not be easy but with God's help, it can be done. I will miss Tom but more importantly, I will keep your family lifted up in prayer.

I am so sorry to about Tom death. He had so many plans to move to Fl. and to start enjoying his life. The house he purchased was just beautiful and so well decorated. I will truely miss Tom for he was a good man.

God bless you, Uncle Thom, Jr. The other side of the building won't be the same without you. I trust that God has given you complete and total healing for every ailment. I feel like I have gained an "adopted" Tanty in your sister over these trying days. We look forward to seeing each other at the family reunion this summer. May the great memories of the Thom we knew be eternal.
Your adopted neice, Tiffany
