

Mr. Larry Wendell Jackson

May 20, 1966 - December 9, 2019

Larry Wendell Jackson, 53, who was also known as "Jackson", transitioned on December 9, 2019, in San Antonio, Texas, shortly after his return home. Larry was born May 20, 1966, to George G. Jackson and Herbert Askew.

Larry was a native of Newport News, Virginia and attended Briarfield Elementary and Huntington Intermediate, finishing his run at Warwick High School. His personal dreams and aspirations included owning his own food truck and restaurant one day. He once said he would call it "Jasmine" after his beloved daughter. Larry was a man's man and could talk his way out of any situation, as we all know, this is how he walked through life. Anyone that knew him couldn't spend a moment of sadness in Larry's presence, one way or the other he'd make you laugh no matter how down in out you were. He was that kind of guy, pick you right on up out of your downtimes. He always said it was his personal struggles and failures throughout life that gave him the wisdom he had acquired. He never let his personal struggles define him in spite of how he may have been viewed by others, he was still Larry.

Larry's first achievement was overcoming the naysayers and criticizers in his life while pushing through his own personal battles, and at the end of his life, he accomplished that one goal.

He is predeceased by his elder sister, Joy Jackson, and mother, Glenda Jackson.

Larry is survived by his three children, oldest son LaRon Jackson, daughter Jasmine Jackson, and youngest son Dominique Cully; as well as his remaining siblings, eldest sister, Gay L. Gray (Anthony), Debra Jackson and brother Terry Jackson (Shauna); six grandchildren, his sweetheart, RaVonda Culley, and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

My family, my Cuzo!!!

So many memories there's not enough room up here for them all. I spent the first part of my life in my aunty house with Larry, Terry. Larry was my big cuzo and my bodyguard when we were kids. I thank God I got a chance to tell u I love and how much u mean to me. I will never forget u and I will always love u big Cuzo!! Always!!!! My family!!!

So very sorry on the lost of a dear love one. Larry's time on earth was short but the plan God has for him is eternal. To the family I pray Gods perfect peace on each one of you all. The peace that surpasses all understanding.
