

Mrs. Sharon Nyoka Clayton

June 7, 1959 - July 22, 2020

Sharon Clayton entered into eternal rest on July 22, 2020, in Hampton, VA. She was born June 7, 1959, in Newport News, VA, to the late Burma and James Monroe. She attended Newport News Public Schools where she graduated from Warwick High School.

Sharon lived in the Newport News/Hampton area her whole life and worked as a CNA. She loved to help people, would give you her last, and she had such a caring heart. Over the years, she loved to work and always had a job, with her latest in Housekeeping. She retired from Colonial Williamsburg as a Housekeeper.

"Thunda" is what people would call her. She was the life of the party and loved to have a good time. Her son Mike gave her the nickname, "Juice Mama", and she called him "Juice Boy". She was the last one living out of her siblings. She always said her mother said, "You're going to be a strong woman." And that she indeed was and didn't take any mess from anyone.

Sharon is preceded in death by her parents, Burma and James Monroe; her five brothers and sisters; and her best friend, Pat.

She leaves to cherish her memories her loving, devoted daughter, Alexis Russell (Maxie); her two sons, Michael and Marcus Clayton; two grandchildren, Maxie III and Alaysia Russell (with one on the way from her son Mike); her nieces and nephews Marie, Levy, Yolanda, Latisha, Valerie, and Aliah; her ex-husband, Dean Clayton; and her good friends, Cassie Mae and Patrina Martin.

“ I am just finding out about the passing of Sharon, we went to Huntington High School, we had some of the same classes and lived a street away, we have the same middle name of Nyoka and we always joked about it. Sharon was a nice and kind person, she liked to joke a lot and keep you smiling and she smiled all the time even when she felt sad, she would stop and talk even when she was in a hurry she would stop and say hello and had such a happy spirit about her. I am so shocked to hear of her passing. RIP Sharon from your friend Tammy Whitaker.

“ Sister Sharon will be truly missed by her First Baptist Church Morrison (Newport News, Virginia) family. She didn't hesitate to dance, praise, clap, sing or loudly shout, "Amen!" from her congregational seat. She was an active member of Sunday School and Sunday Worship, Wednesday Lunch/Prayer, Prayer and Praise also Bible Study. Her willingness to help/assist inspired us, her stories/testimonies informed us, her questions challenged us, her humor tickled us and her greeting/smile blessed us. We are spiritually richer because she journeyed our way. Family, GOD'S presence, strength and peace.

We pray for your "joy in the morning."
