“ My name is Treesa (Alice's niece). Al was a good friend and he will surely be missed and forever loved. Whenever he would come to visit, we would have the best conversations because with Al, you never had to try to find something to talk about, it would just flow and we would all laugh so hard. As always, life and time happened but he never stopped asking about me and how I'm doing. He will be forever in my heart.
