

Mr. Allen Lee Wardrett

May 2, 1954 - December 25, 2018

On December 25, 2018, God called Allen home. Allen was born at Whitaker Memorial Hospital, in Newport News, VA, to the late Jimmie Wardrett Sr and Bessie Mae Richardson. He was the third of four children.

He attended and graduated from Warwick High School in 1972. After High School, Allen enlisted in the U.S. Army and served a total of 6 years where he was trained as a Dental Hygienist. After military service, he returned to Newport News and later married his first wife Cora LaVette Johnson. The marriage resulted in the birth of one son, Prince and two daughters, Tamika and Shakethia, who all reside in Hampton, VA.

Years later he relocated to Charlotte, N.C. and found employment at the Walmart Super Center. He remained there for thirteen years. During this employment, he met and wed Gennie Lynn Johnson. He enjoyed a close relationship with Lynn until his death.

Allen was a humble and loving person. He was known for his humor and good nature. He was at his best when challenged. Told that he could not do something revealed his ambition to do just that! He was always a loving husband, son, father and brother.

He was preceded in death by his father Jimmie Wardrett Sr. He is also survived by his mother, Bessie Mae Wardrett, of Newport News, VA; brother, Jimmie L Wardrett Jr, of Lithonia, GA; sisters, Gwendolyn Henry, of Newport News, VA; Phyllis E Miller, of Lithonia, GA and Brenda F Stewart, of Stone Mountain; son, Prince L Wardrett, daughters, Tamika N Wardrett and Shakethia Y Wardrett and nine (9) grandchildren: Ronald, Sanaa', LeHontas, Jervon, Noah, Ethan, Isaiah, Raine and Journe.

He will be greatly missed!

“ Allen and I met in the year of 2007 at Walmart super center where we both worked we became the best of friends Allen was always polite kind and generous he was such a gentlemen well manred but always quick with a witty remark his sense of humour and good nature attracted people the moment he entered the room,.and no one could forget his raucous and contageious laugh. Allen faced life bodily and brave courageously person Allen told me about his enlistment in the US ARMY and the MARINE CORP,.He would tel I me war stories of him and friends and how he was proud of his service and loyal to his country Allen was spiritually strong and compationate above all he cherished and loved his family and friends, we will miss him more than words can express. Allen loved spending time with pets just before this pass Thanksgiving I gave him a gift two love birds he name them pixie,Dixie he had also had fishes Allen was not a selfless person Allen was a extremely hard worker go into work on days off his spare time he would play the drums and guitar and congo he loved old school music their we're a time at work he was pushing carts in an saw a lady pocket book left in cart he turned it in and the customer came to him and thank him a card with a gratitude inside Allen always said we must never take anything for granted. I am very proud to have been his wife and thank God for sending him into my life, as my husband. May his soul be happy rest in peace my beloved spouse, Allen will always remain in my heart and mind I can feel the presence of Allen their will be no distance between Allen and I I can spend the rest of my life with his memories 2: Corinthian 5:6-8it was utterly devastating loosing Allen he was heart and soul mate loving memory Gennie Lynn Wardrett

“ All praises to the most high (our God) and his perfect son Yahawashi (Christ). I give thanks for being able to share 21 years and 7 months of marriage with Allen Lee Wardrett(1983-2005). My condolences to our children and grand children's loss. Our children and their children names are: Prince Lee Wardrett- princess Lehontas, prince Jervon, and prince Noah. Princess Chyah (a.k.a Tamika) Wardrett- Prince Judah (a.k.a. Syrus), Princess Sara' (a.k.a. Sanaa') and prince Malachi (soon to come), Princess Shakethia Wardrett (no kids) Allen was excited about his new grandson Prince Malachi, he was wating to attend the birth of his new life. Even though Allen lived far, he enjoyed the long conversations with all our children and grand children. After our years of marriage Allen and I remained friends, and respected each other decision. He will be missed by all. I send my condolence to his current wife. "Ms. Lynn" Never had the opportunity to meet, but I pray her strength in the Lord. I send my condolence to his lovely mom (my ex mother-in law) "Bessie Wardrett" and Allen's siblings, host of nephews and neices and extended family and friends.

Allen You are and will always be missed. "Peaceful Journey".
Your ex-wife, family and friend,
Cora Wardrett Johnson (a.k.a. Lavette)

My love to the family
Shalom
