“ Andre Horton and I grew up together in Newport News, Va. We did everything together from getting into trouble to just laughing about any and everything. I left Newport, News, Va, and I now live in Bassett, Va. I lost contact with Andre, but they reunited with him through Myspace. I use to stay in contact with Andre in Richmond, Va because I had planned to attend Virginia Commonwealth University. Things didn't work out at that college so I had a change of plans. I had called Andre on his home number in Richmond, Va to inform him that I would be attending Old Dominion University in the fall of 2009. I thought we could just simply hang out like old times. I was very disturbed when his stepmother told me that had buried him three weeks ago. I had no idea. Andre was a very energetic, outgoing individual who didnt deserve (especially so young). Im upset that I had to find out this way. You will definitely be missed and loved. This is not goodbye, this is a see you later type of thing!

“ To the family/Friends: I am sorry about the lost of our love one. Dre was a dear friend to me as well as a blessing. He was always someone to uplift spirits no matter what the mood was. He was definately a walking angel. He will be truly missed, but accepting that he is in a better place will give me peace and comfort. I didn't get a chance to meet most of his family but i knew he loved you all dearly, cause he constantly talked about yall.(his dad,Malita,Ms.Avery,Barron,Suave,Cory,HIs grandmother and aunts from the 757 and definately the legendary Ms.Dale). Unfortunately, we wont be able to see him in flesh but we can all definately carry him in Spirit. I'm just Blessed to have known a wonderful person such as Dre. I was able to learn so much from him, therefore I thank God. Please keep God close and continue to PRAY knowing that sunshine will come in the morning. Sincerely,his old roommate from MEADOWDALE/GOOD FRIEND)

“ To the family of Andre, I had the pleasure of meeting him through a mutual friend some time ago and it was never a dull moment with him in the room for he was sure one to keeping you laughing. Everytime he would come to my house he would sing "Butta Love" for me and for that I would always remember him. I hope his sudden death will be a wake up call to some other young child that the streets is not a safe place to be. Let's stop the violence and start loving one another.
