“ My aunt always had a smile for you, but when we were kids she could stare you into being good. She made the best biscuits, beans mac and cheese, banana pudding, rice pudding, and everything, and was full of love. I will never forget you Aunt Anna

Kent said don't you mean a senior citizen lol she didn't even stop her conversation she just rolled her eyes at Kent and cut them over at me for laughing lolMy God she will be truly missed

“ I love you grand mom..... You are my world! Thank you for all that you have done for me, grooming me to be the woman I am today... You built a solid foundation in me and your legacy and love will live on.... Words can't express the thanks and gratitude that I owe you. Not in a life time could I ever repay you!!!! I pray that I am half the woman you was.

God don't create them like you anymore..... I thank God he let me have you 41 years out of your 92 years here on earth. Now it is time for you to take your rest because not a job well done BUT what a great job you have done... You have always been my angel here on earth now you just have your wings.... Come and check on me anytime my love!!! We will be together again so this is not good bye.... See you later and I love you. God knows I do and I'm gonna miss you something terrible! Glad we shared that one last special moment....

Thank you for allowing us to view your love one from a distance (Augusta, GA). Ms. Cofield sounds like a beautiful woman, with a beautiful family. I am privileged to know Phyllis Hicks (her daughter). My heart goes out to you all at this appointed time which we all will see someday.
