

Mr. Anthony Arguirre McCallum

July 21, 1960 - January 29, 2023

Anthony Arguirre McCallum, 62 of Newport News, Va. affectionately known as "MO" departed this world on Sunday, January 29, 2023, at Sentara Norfolk Hospital. He was born July 21, 1960, in Baltimore Maryland to the late James McCallum and Georgette McCallum. Anthony was a 1979 graduate from Northern Senior High School. He served in the Army at Ft. Meade Maryland as a Food Service Specialist. He had two sons Che and Lamar McCallum.

Anthony had accepted Christ in his life and was dedicated to a Christian walk. He was a true believer of GOD's word and believed in the power of prayer. He attributed his love for God to his mother and grandmother.

He was a die hard "Raven" fan, knowing all the players, their numbers, and stats. He was a sports enthusiast. A "Raven" man all the way, win or lose.

“ I met Anthony in 2017 ,we became friends, He would always call to check on my brother and I to see how we were doing,And he always let me know when he was in the hospital.He was my friend.
To his Family I pray that GOD give you strength!
Rest in peace, “MO”.

“ Anthony was my cousin and my memory of him will always be the love he had for family, the way he listened intently when ever we had a conversation. He had a beautiful spirit that could reach anyone. I imagine you showing that beautiful smile as the angels came to usher your spirit home.
Peace , Love and comfort to our family. Tina
