“ Tony you will truly be miss by me and the kids. It's very shocking that Dee and I just talk to you on the phone and had a happy conversation, I'm really glad that Dee had the chance to speak with you not knowing that was going to be the last time we would here your voice. But, God knows best. I'm glad that you were that Great Father that Dee needed and he has your crazy personality. One thing that I can say is that you really love the Lord. Some people may not know that but we did. Say hello to your mom for us. You will always be miss and love by this family. See you in Heaven one day. Love Always "Cissy"

“ I was blessed the day my mom met you because it's hard to imagine life without you, for me you made life worth living. You was my evrything, growing up I wanted to be a "reflection of you". Your sense of style was one of a kind how you could make people laugh and smile without even trying. In my eyes you were the funniest man on earth, and that's where I get my sense of humor from. I remember times me and Ivory would imitate you and be laughing so hard and I could see you laughing saying "you goofy". I got a lifetime of memories. You showed me so much you made sure I knew I was loved from the time you helped me tie my shoes, to showing me how to ride a bike, showing me how to cook, I mean just everything about you, you was my superman and everywhere you went I wanted to be right there " and I was". You was my dad and I was your son. Your one and only and nothing else mattered, I know you watching over me from the clouds and I'm a make it my duty to make you proud. I love you forever pop's. From your Loving Son Dee. "See You In Heaven" when I get there. Until then, I'm a hold on to your crown. Tell Ryan I love em and miss em. Thank you for all the wonderful memories. Love ... your Baby Boy !

“ Please share the following condolences with the family of Anthony Parker:

We will miss you dearly. May you rest in peace and enjoy your time up there. Keep looking down and keep looking out! Ivory always spoke of you and I know he loved you being his uncle. He would always say, thats Uncle Tony right there, look at uncle Tony(while laughing). Had a ball at your parties and I enjoyed getting to know you! XOXOX
