“ It is with great sadness to learn of the passing of Barbara Ann. I grew up in the Blandford community when she and her family lived right across the street from me. Barbara Ann was full of life and loved to come over to my mother's house (Rena Green-Jones) to listen to music and dance (this was back in the day). Barbara Ann was a teenager at the time. Those were happier days. This was a time when it was ok to have cookouts, house parties and block parties and now moving forward, we are here. These times have been challenging for most, but I will always cherish the good times celebrated with the old Blandford family, good and bad. I can definitely empathize with the family as Barbara Ann will be traveling right behind my late uncle, Thurman Green, Jr. (Bunchie). Rest now angels, your work here on earth has been completed. No more suffering. To Stacey, Pamela, Kim and Malcolm and Barbara Ann's daughter April; my prayers are with you and your families. This is on behalf of my family; Rena Green-Jones, Calvin Jones, Cassandra Page and myself (Daphne) and Marvin Jones.

“ My dearest Cousin Barbara Ann (aka Bar-brain), you will be greatly missed. We know that your pain is gone, and it's our time to deal with sorrow. Your 411 information will be a loss for my Mom (Judy) as she looked forward to y'all talks of what's going on around town, LoL. Hopefully, another family member will keep her up-to-date. Growing up, Bar-brain was the Queen and unbeatable at playing “Barbie Jack”! There were no cheating going on in her presence.

Thanks for the great memories and may your soul Rest In Peace. God is with you and God got our family.

You will be forever loved and missed 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

“ Awe, where do I began. Piece of my heart is empty...My Barbara was one of a kind truly. Dear cousin and friend will forever live in that spot that feels empty now. I smile though when I think of the foolish and fun things we did together, to many to mention. May her soul and spirit rest now. Our love for one another was unconditional and that's my blessing. Thank you Father for our time together.
