

Mr. Bernaldo Rojas

February 25, 1951 - May 10, 2009

Bernaldo “Bee” Rojas was born on February 25th, 1951 in St. Croix, Virgin Island to the late Aurora Hodge Davila and Alberto Rojas. Later in life Bee moved to Newport News, VA and then to Hampton, VA where he resided until his final resting day on May 10th, 2009.

He worked at Hess Refinery in St. Thomas, VI. He loved the ocean and sea. Bernaldo enjoyed outdoor activities like scuba diving and fishing. He always talked about how much he enjoyed living on the Bay Side of Saint Thomas, catching different types of seafood. He also reflected on moments spent with his father, working beside him as a carpenter. “Bee” also had experience as a groundkeeper.

Bernaldo was preceded also in death by his sister, Roberta Bennett.

His legacy includes his four children: Lisette Rojas of West Palm Beach, FL, Carlos Rojas (Christine) of Lancaster, PA, Maria Rojas of Lancaster, PA, and Bernaldo Rojas, Jr. of Loganville, Ga.

The legacy further continues through his eight grandchildren: Leanna and Leayle Benjamin of West Palm Beach, FL; Abimael Roa, Bryan Gonzalez, and Milli Torres all of Lancaster, PA; Kyle, Babriel, and Brianna Rojas; and great grandson Jeremiah Senko of West Palm Beach, FL. He also leaves behind a brother-in-law Mike Thomas of Chicago, IL, and a host of relatives and friends. Not to be forgotten are his seven brothers and sisters: Asilda Thomas (Mike) of Chicago, IL, Sonia Castro (Wilfredo) of St. Thomas, Juan Davila, Jr. of St.

Thomas, Carmen M. Davila of Hitchcock, TX, Orlando Davila of Newport News, VA, Samuel Davila of West Palm Beach, FL, and Sandra Davila of St. Thomas.

A viewing will be held from 1:00 PM to 6:00 PM on Friday, May 15th, 2009 at M. E. Fisher Funeral Home Chapel 2117 Madison Ave. Newport News, Va. 23607. “ My favorite Uncle Benaldo...I have the best memories of you staying with us when I was growing up. You were so creative and could make absolutely anything! I used to impress my friends with the shark jaw that came from the huge shark that YOU CAUGHT! I love you so and know that you are happy, swimming in the ocean in Heaven. See you again in spirit one day. Love, Your Niece, Jodi
