“ My Uncle Carlton was more than my uncle. He was my close friend. I often think about conversations that I had with him that I were difficult to discuss, but my uncle had a demeanor that made talking just about anything easy. He always listened to what I had to say before advising me or responding what I had said. He was a friend that could always make me laugh and put aside my troubles for awhile. There's so much that I could say about my most favorite uncle and my friend, but I would end up writing a book. I will miss my uncle. Uncle Carlton, I'll always remember and think about you. You loved me when I thought that I couldn't be loved. You listened to me when no one else would. You made me laugh when laughing seemed far away as the east is from the west. Rest now you fought a hard fight but i didn't loose. You have victory in Christ Jesus. I love you! Booboo
