*I just found out today.....I am praying for the family. May the prayers she prayed continue to be answered faithfully by God for all of us. I know it hurts and it will for a while until God releases Joy for this sorrow. He has given her Beauty for Ashes now....I can see her up there shouting and dancing with Beulah, Elder Spriggs, Evangelist Moore (my Mother) and all of the Saints that have gone home before her. That's the one thing that calms me right now because I know God has turned her Grave into A Beautiful Garden. I encourage everyone to listen to Grave Into Garden by Elevation Worship.....Praise & Worship music along with prayer and the Word of God our only Hope and Savior will get us through this. I love y'all so very much.....Im Praying

My heart is broken! I am just finding out now the news of Carolyn passing. A Spirit came to me on Sunday I guess just to let me know she was gone because I heard the news the very next day and I have to check to see if it was true. My comfort comes in knowing that she knew in loved her some Jesus. All of the good times she and I and Mama Kelly had together just praising the Lord. I am so glad for the sweet rest God promised her and that she now manifest for all of us to see God is real! He was real to Carolyn he's real to me and I pray he is real to you who,miss her too

“ Aunt Carolyn I can sit here and go on and on about you but anyone that knew you already know what a wonderful woman of GOD you were. Ever since day one you have always made me feel welcome into the family and that is something I will never forget. You always knew what to say to people to uplift their spirits, you took care of many people even though you needed help yourself. Anybody that needed advice or a good laugh knew to call on Aunt Carolyn because she would turn that frown into a smile and knew just what to say to dry up them tears. The world lost a mighty good woman but heaven gained one crazy angel and I mean that in a good way lol. I know you up there right now cutting up and acting crazy but you go right ahead one thing I know for sure you not in any more pain. I love you and I will forever remember Aunt Carolyn.

Love always Jennifer and Tyrone Robinson
