

Deaconess Carrie C. Bonner

January 15, 1938 - April 21, 2022

God in His infinite wisdom, saw she was tired, so He called her out of the garden and back home to Him in Heaven.

Carrie was a devoted servant of the Lord. God put His arms around this beautiful lady, gently closed her weary eyes and lifted her from this land of pain and sorrow to a home of peace and rest on April 21, 2022, surrounded by her loved ones in Prince George, Virginia.

Carrie was born January 15, 1938, to the late George W. Coleman, Sr. and Leatha Coleman.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Samuel A. Bonner, Sr.; son, Sammy A. Bonner, Jr.; sister, Mrs. Annie Manson of Virginia Beach, VA and four brothers, Robert Lee Coleman, Benjamin Coleman, Nelson Coleman and George Coleman, Jr.

Mrs. Bonner received her education in the Dinwiddie County School System, Dinwiddie, Virginia. She was employed by at the Fort Lee Army Base, Fort Lee, VA and retired from General Defense Supply, Richmond, VA after 30 years of faithful service where she received many accolades and awards.

At an early age, she was baptized and joined the Olive Branch Baptist Church, Dinwiddie, Virginia and later moved to Prince George, Virginia with her husband and the love of her life. Together they joined Providence Baptist Church, Prince George, Virginia where she later became a member of the Senior Choir, Brenda M. Bonner Choir, Missionary Ministry and Deaconess Ministry. Carrie loved the Lord and praised Him through song, dance, and her service. She loved to travel and enjoyed cooking on Sundays and holidays.

Although our hearts are saddened, we pause to give honor to Carrie's transition from her earthy life to her heavenly home. Family and friends rejoice that God allowed her to pass away peacefully in the comfort of her own home.

She will be fondly remembered and forever cherished by her loving daughters, Carolyn E. Lewis (Pastor Calvin) of Petersburg, VA, and Jean A. Bonner of Prince George, VA; four sisters, twin sister, Mrs. Alice Parker (Charlie), Mrs. Betty Vaughan (Willie Lee deceased), Mrs. Diane Street (Charles deceased), and Ms. Leatha Winfield; brother, Mr. Emmett Coleman, of Pittsburg, PA; seven grandchildren, Sammy Bonner, Jr., Franklin Ross, Jr., Calvin Lewis, Jr., and Jawanna Townes all of Petersburg, VA, Sonya Bonner, Tonya Bonner, and Monica Bonner all of Virginia Beach, VA; and sister-in-law, Mrs. Rose Gee of Prince George, VA.

Special recognition to her devoted friend, Mrs. Juanita Clark and niece, Ms. Audrey Gee, neighbor, Mrs. Sandra Holmes and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ One of Cuz Carrie's favorite sayings was "I'm not going no where until Jesus comes and get me. " How sad it was for us in the flesh, but happy in the spirit when the Lord came and took mother away from pain to promise. My prayers for Jean, Carolyn, and the Coleman and Bonner families.

“ To Jean, Carolyn, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, siblings and each and everyone who is connected to the Bonner/ Coleman families, we the Hawkins Family extend our sincere, heartfelt condolences to each and every one of you. Mrs. Carrie was a cheerful, loving, upbeat woman whenever you saw her. I have always admired her style of dress and the way she could step in those heels until the very end. Her presence around PBC will be missed.

Sincerely, Sheila Ellis and the Hawkins Family
