“ I Remer you everyday, I remember how you always knew when something was wrong me, it's like we always had a special bond because we did, I wanted to be with you when you when you took your last breath so you wouldn't be scared, I was on my way, but you were to weak to hold on. I will never be able to forgive myself, I needed to be with you so that this could be our goodbye, I feel like I left you alone to go by yourself to a place unknown, when I know with your last breath you were only trying to go home. Daddy I can't stop this pain I want you to find a way to help me, I'm as scared as you were that I will never forgive myself for not being with you holding your hand rubbing your head. As I go through this life I have constant reminders of you everyday I just need to know that your okay. I don't know. I pray you are someplace where your high energy is bringing nothing but smiles and joy, I will continue to search for mine, but without you being here on this earth I can only take it day by day & pray for understanding. I love you buddy, I miss you my daddy, best friend. I think I'm ready for my visit now, very suttleast though, don't scare me.

This is my daddy, he taught me how life can be such a blessing and to look at it from all angles, he use to say when things went wrong it's murphy's law. I never knew what that meant until I got older and had some things go wrong, now I can better handle the trials that life brings me. He showed me how to get things done, I miss you daddy, my heart aches for you laugh, my phone call (5:30)am, we didn't go two or three days without speaking because you were my best friend. I wish I could have told you what you ment to me more often, now I'm all alone but I have such beautiful memories. I actually went a whole week ok three days without thinking about the sadness I feel everyday, I know you would be proud of me. I need you to let me know that your sprit is hear with me. Daddy I love you so much please reach out to me.

Your daughter kisha

P.S thank you for all the voice mails you ever left me on my cell, I listen to them almost everyday, daddy when will this pain stop?

I'm getting better, I'm not crying. But it's not 1 day, not 1 of these days that goes by that I don't think about you. I love & miss you pops.
