“ Me and Charles were both hired the same day and worked 10.5 years together. We always celebrated our work anniversary together. He had a smile that could light up the room. He was fun, hardworking and stubborn. He would stop everything to help out. I will miss him terribly. My heart goes out to his family.

“ Even though we have been gone from Fort Eustis for many years we remember fondly Mr. Charles. Whenever something was broken or someone hadn't done the job he would have, my neighbor and I would tell base maintenance send Mr. Charles or don't send anybody!! He knew my name and the names of my children. I was sad and sorry to hear of his passing but know he rests with our Lord and savior. I wish his family every peace and comfort. Thank you to your family for sharing him with ours and so many on the base who loved and respected him. SSgt and Mrs Mark A Peterson and Family (ret.)
