Our brother Charles was the 3rd oldest born, out of 5 brothers. Charles was different, he was quiet, love music, the Bible, and potatoes. We his siblings, had a lot of fun with Charles. His guitar was his everything. It expressed who he was. He could play that guitar in front of him or behind his head. There is a family photo of him in a high chair, with a guitar in his hand. That's how long a guitar been in his life. He was a master with that guitar. We love our brother and we are going to really miss him, especially that contiguous laugh and smile when he gets excited. RIP our brother until we all meet you again. Thank you, Larry and Johnnie, for being a good care taker for our brother. May God Bless Our Family!
