

Mr. Chester Edward Seawright, Jr.

May 22, 1942 - May 5, 2020

In Memory of Mr. Chester Edward Seawright Jr.

Chester E. Seawright Jr, the son of the late Kathryn Edlow and the late Chester E. Seawright Sr. took flight from this earthly plain on May 5th, 2020.

Chester was born May 22nd, 1942, in Newport News, Virginia, and was educated in the Newport News public school system.

He was introduced to the Lord at a very young age and accepted Him as his Lord and Savior. He thoroughly knew the word of the Lord and was consistent in his prayer life.

On January 30th, 1964, Chester entered the military, serving in the United States Marine Corp, actively serving in the Viet-Nam war. While serving his country, he was awarded various medals, National Defense Service Medal, Viet-Nam Service Medal, Good Conduct Medal, and Rifle Marksmanship Medal. Chester was honorably discharged on January 30th, 1968.

Chester was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, parents, and two grandsons.

Chester found great enjoyment in hunting and fishing. He had a passion for horses. He loved riding and caring for the two horses that he owned.

He leaves to honor and cherish his memory one sister, Linda Slade (Albert), two sons Rodney and Darrell Seawright, three granddaughters, three grandsons, one great-grandson, foster sister Jackie, mother of his children Yvonne Seawright, a dedicated friend Findolph Taylor, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and very close friends.
