“ Christine will be missed by family and friends. Christine was an unbelievable mother, wife, sister, and friend. She never met a stranger. Her quick wit and smile was contagious. Her relationship with her extended family and those she considered friends should be a role model for the next generation. We will all see her sooner than we think and she will be waiting with open arms and that quick wit to welcome us. Thanks you for being my friend for so many years.

“ When I was younger my mom would take me and my sister to Christine’s house for parties and they were so much fun. We were just talking about that about a week ago. Rest in peace Christine. My condolences to the Banks and Nettles family. God bless you all. ❤️

“ When I married into the family you welcomed me with open arms and home. Days changed, weather changed, years changed, but one thing always remained the same, and that was you. I’m gonna miss those corn puddings you made for me but nothing can compare to the love that you showed everyone that knew you. 😊
