“ To the Williams family. I have so many memories of Chris in the short time that I was around him... but the one word that comes to mind is love. When I heard of his passing I was crushed all I could think about was his smile and how their was never unhappy moment when he was around he kept me and my children laughing....and he would give you the shirt off his back. He looked out for everyone and loved his family dearly. We love him but God loved him more he fought a good fight and kept the faith now God has given him his wings. 2 Corinthians 5;8 the Apostle Paul said it best we are confident , I say, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

To his mom Ms. Stephanie Williams and his sister Chanta Williams and family you are in my thoughts and payers may God give you peace during this time of bereavement.

With love, Tiffey L. Malone

“ My dear cousin. I don't have enough room or enough words to write how much im hurting right now.. As I type thru all these tears im overwemed with memories . One memorie that I hold deeply you telling me that I'm not just your cousin but I am your best friend. That night we was at my house I cooked you dinner and we have a bottle of wine and talked all night and played mortal Kombat you was the only one that could come close to beating me... I wouldn't go upstairs and sleep wit my significant other cause I said when my cousin visit imma spend all my time him... Never in our life did you just spend one night wit me . U new if you came to my house U had to stay between 3-5 days .. That's why you never got anything done haha cause U was at my house. I love you so much... God bless you.... “ Chris your were a real friend. You kept me laughing. In the Townhomes when I had trouble, you had my back. Boy Chris so many people are going to miss you. I would rather you gain your wings and be rejoicing, then to be here sick and in pain. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted" R.I.P
