

Mrs. Clara B. Harris

March 20, 1921 - May 19, 2009

In thee O Lord do I put my trust. I am as a wonder unto many. But thou as to my strong refuge. The Lord my God is always on time. He knows just what to do. To give the soulfit nourishment, Father, "thy will, not mine be done."

On Tuesday morning, May 19, 2009, Mrs. Clara Belle Harris entered into her eternal rest at Riverside Regional Medical Center, in Newport News, Virginia. Clara was born March, 20, 1921 to the late Jasper and Mamie Williams. She went to school and lived her whole life here in Virginia. She worked at Asheville Misa Company for 23 years, until her retiring from employment due to her physical disability. Clara Belle Harris was a devout member of the Jehovah Witness faith.

Clara was preceded in death by both parents and her late husband Mr. Lomott Harris; her brother Jasper Williams and sisters Eleanor Samuels and Beatrice Wood. She leaves to cherish her memory her brother Lawrence Walker of Newport News and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends
