

Mr. Clarence Renard Hannon

April 14, 1961 - December 5, 2021

Mr. Clarence Renard Hannon, affectionately known as Noddie, of Petersburg, Virginia, peacefully gained his wings on December 5, 2021 at VCU Medical Center in Richmond, VA.

Clarence whispered to his devoted big sister, Sharon that he wanted to be free of pain. Just days after devoting his life to Christ, his wish was granted.

Clarence Hannon was born on April 14, 1961 in Augusta, GA to Mary L. Hannon and the stepson to the late Herman W. Hannon, Sr. In Augusta, Georgia during his adolescence, Clarence was known as the "Honey Bun Man". As a child, Clarence walked daily with his cousin Katrina to get a Honey Bun at the local bakery. Soon after, neighbors and many others fully started to see his quiet and calm nature.

Clarence graduated in 1980 from Prince George High School in Prince George, VA. Shortly after, he became employed by Winn Dixie, Hopewell, VA where he remained an employee for twenty-five years. Clarence was adored by many patrons and managers alike and known for his work ethic. Clarence was employed at Auto Works in Colonial Heights, VA where he remained a loyal employee until his untimely passing.

Clarence found his incomparable niche by showcasing his talent on the grounds of Virginia Motorsports Park in Dinwiddie, VA. There he established several endearing and long-term relationships, many of which he considered as family and also shared his passion and love for photography and all cars.

Clarence was known to be knowledgeable, an enthusiastic teacher and a mentor to many who sought his expertise. He was a very gifted & talented photographer and artist who aspired to open his own studio. Widely characterized as a man of few words, Clarence's calm demeanor was one of listening, observing, and respectfully allowing others to shine.

Clarence was a man of peace and love. His placidity to others captured the essence of his life. His peaceful and earthly presence will be missed by all, yet his legacy for capturing life's essence will astonish us forever.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved mother, Mary Hannon of Petersburg, VA; five siblings, Sharon Rivera Sanchez (Tito) of Richmond, VA, Pamela Perry (Rick) of Augusta, GA, Wanda Hannon of Petersburg, VA and Diann Ames Hannon (Arron) of Jacksonville, FL and Herman Hannon, Jr. (Dawn) of Chester, VA; aunts, Sarah Jones, Frankie Dean and Pat Jones of Augusta GA and Honey Buns; cousin, Katherine Frails; along with a host of uncles, nephews, nieces, great nephews and great nieces, cousins and special friends devoted to Clarence during his life and committed to carrying on his legacy, Mike Goode, Scott Soucy, Tracy Portz and son Mase, Kyle, Mark and Katherine Henry, Tyler, Judy Franklin as well as the VMP and PDRA Racing Family.

“ 45 years+ I called this man and his kin; FAMILY. At age 9 he was my first "crush" 😍. Me: "Sssh Wanda Hannon don't tell him. 😏 If you know his sister (MY sister) you ALREADY know she can't 🤔 for long. Wanda: "Noddie (aka Clarence) Dahleen like you." 🤔🤔🤔. His response... 😊. Those shared rides to Prince George junior and high school with Clarence Kelly Ron Kelly my brother and Wanda were epic; as we squeezed atop each other and held on when he vvvrrroomed🔥 us on the backroads as if a NASCAR driver. Who 🤔 knew what his future profession would be. "Everything Cars and photographing their beauty". To my Hannon "bonus" family; you know my heart aches for you. It soothes me to know how strong you are. Noddie lived a good life and is now pain free. I love you all.

“ I worked with Clarence many many years ago at Winn Dixie Grocery store. He was always the quiet silent type but I would always get an occasional smile out of him when he walked by. It was a privilege to call him my friend. About 12-14 years ago I went to the track to see my son Josh race and my son introduced me to Clarence and I could not believe my eyes.....the person that I called my friend all of those years ago had befriended both of my sons Josh and Jordan at the track. To his family I am so sorry for your loss. Clarence was truly one of a kind.

“ I remember how quiet my cousin Clarence, aka Noddie, was. I could be visiting the family in Petersburg, and would barely see him. I knew he was there though. His quiet grace was his strength. His photography was incredible and we shared that passion. RIP cuz. We will shoot on the other side.
