May 2, 1948 - April 23, 2019

Clyde E. Baker was born on May 2, 1948, in Humphrey County, Mississippi, one of 13 children, to loving parents Lesley and Ruby Baker. He was preceded in death by his father Lesley Baker; One sister Helen “Valen” Baker and one sister-in-law Doris.

Clyde later moved to Hampton, VA in his late teens. And later resided in Newport News where he met his wife Brenda & later found a job working for Newport News Shipbuilding and worked there for 44 years before he retired in 2012. Clyde started going to the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah’s Witnesses with his wife after the passing of his father and listening to the brothers as they came by to talk to him about the Bible off and on before his death. He loved sitting around with his brothers telling stories, watching his favorite shows Gun Smoke, Lone Ranger, and Andy Griffin. Clyde always kept a smile and was very humble.
