“ I am so sorry for your loss. Cora was my birthday sister. When I couldn't catch up with her last year, I became concerned. So every once in a while I checked Google.

Cora was my sister Jackie Carr's best friend, and a very good one. I felt I had inherited her from Jackie. Cora and I enjoyed talking on the phone from time to time, sharing blessings, and celebrating our mutual birthday. I feel so blessed to have had her friendship. I send blessings from me to her family and friends.

I just found out that Cora passed away. I hadn't called her in a while. She was a special person and I will miss our talks. I met her when I was attending Hampton Roads Church years ago.
