

Mr Davain A. Bryant

July 21, 1962 - December 16, 2024

Davain A. Bryant, affectionately known as "Jersey," was born on July 21, 1962, in Petersburg, Virginia. He was raised in East Orange, New Jersey, before moving to Hampton, Virginia, where he resided until his passing. Davain was the son of Mary Bryant McCoy and the late Russel Bryant. He was one of three siblings, preceded in death by his brother, Keith Bryant, and survived by his sister, Vivette Perry (Reginald).

Davain was a devoted father to his son, Davain McClain, and a proud grandfather to his grandson, Ace Egypt McClain, born to Davain and his wife, Jessica McClain. The bond between Davain, his son, and his grandson was deeply rooted in their shared love of baseball. Davain, an avid player from Little League through high school, passed down his passion for the sport, creating cherished memories with his family.

A lifelong sports devotee, Davain was a dedicated fan of the Steelers, Mets, and Knicks. He worked as a cook and was known for his kindness and encouragement to others, his exceptional baseball talents, intelligence, and vibrant personality. Davain embraced life fully, leaving an unforgettable impression on everyone he met. His deep care and devotion to his family was a constant throughout his life. Davain devoted his life to the Lord and worshipped faithfully at Freedom Life Church in Hampton, Virginia, under the loving leadership of Pastor Freddy Villarreal.

Davain will forever be remembered by his mother, Mary Bryant McCoy; his sister, Vivette Perry (Reginald); his son, Davain McClain (Jessica); his grandson, Ace Egypt McClain; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

The Bryant family would like to express their heartfelt gratitude to all who have shared their love, kind words, and support during this time of loss.

Davain will be remembered for the joy he brought to others, the bonds he nurtured, and the legacy of love and laughter he leaves behind.

“ Without fail, every time I served in the coffee bar Davian would come in and get two cups of coffee. The last time I spoke with him was the weekend after Thanksgiving. He told me he was so happy that he had the opportunity to go home to see his family. He was especially grateful to see and spend time with his mother.

I enjoyed getting to know Davian in a bible study recently. He was always kind and thoughtful. I'm sad to hear this news and will be excited to meet him again in heaven.
