

Ms. Deborah Renee Crossland

August 18, 1957 - October 18, 2021

Deborah Renee Crossland was born on August 18, 1957, in Alban, New York, to the late Raymond Crossland Jr., and Mae Rochelle Green.

Deborah was raised in The Bronx, New York, where she attended Public School 6, Junior High School 44, and Monroe High School where she had many friends. She was very intelligent and loved to socialize.

Family and friends will remember Deborah as a jovial spirit with an infectious laugh that filled the room. She kept in touch with her entire family, always calling to see how everyone was doing, and she never forgot a birthday. Her love for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren knew no bounds. We will miss her lively personality, beautiful smile, and her caring nature.

Deborah leaves to cherish her memories, her children: Zakarie Williams, Lenny Smith, and Joseph Smith; her younger siblings: Denise, Kerri (Theo), and Raymond (Marcia); a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, and many friends.

We Love you Deborah and will miss you dearly.

“ My dear cousin I'm lost for words. Thank you for all those laughs about our childhood. I'm going to miss our calls from one another. You made sure you stayed in touch with family and I will always love you for that. Sending prayers to my family. May God keep you all strong at this time. Rest in Peace Deb.
