

Ms. Debra Proctor

April 27, 1955 - November 6, 2017

Debra "Denise" Proctor was born on April 27th, 1955 in Newport News, Virginia to the late Charlie and Everleanor Brown Goodwin. She attended public schools in Newport News graduating from Ferguson High School in 1973.

"Denise" as she was lovingly referred to, joined the United States Army in March 1974; achieving the rank Spec 4. After separating from the service, she attended Christopher Newport College and Thomas Nelson Community College. Denise also attended and completed the Virginia School of Hair Design. For three years she was employed by the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company. Denise decided to move into another field of work at Langley Air Force Base. After working there for 4 years, she moved to Austin, Texas where she became an Emergency Switchboard Operator. Upon returning to Newport News, Denise worked at Waldo Scott Center. Her passion was encouraging children to finish school and follow their dreams.

Professing her faith and trust in God, Denise attended Calvary Seventh Day Adventist Church in Newport News regularly. She loved and cherished the bond that developed between her three sisters in the church: Martha Harper, Mildred Mann, and Vanessa Wise.

Monday night, November 6th, 2017, Debra "Denise" Proctor went to be with her parents and brother, Charlie Goodwin, III who preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memories: her son, Franks "Darius" Brooks; two sisters Shelia Goodwin and Brenda Hart (Linwood); three brothers; Kenneth A. Goodwin, Ronnie Lee, and Steven Goodwin; a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives. Deloris Duck, and Mary Ellen Heath Castello were Debra's two best friends/sisters whom she loved dearly. She will also be missed by many other friends.

“ Girlfriend, I'm going to miss you here on earth, but I KNOW God has you in His loving arms and you're finally at peace. I'll always remember our great childhood and life's lessons we learned along the way. Rest baby, I'll see you when my work here is done. Family, know that much love and blessings are sent your way. Humbly Submitted,
