“I miss my sweet beautiful precious niece, Dee everyday of my life. My first thoughts are when Dee was about 3 or 4, that little girl wanted to ride out with me I would pull up to her family house & she would come running to me. Dee loved to go shopping with me, & liked to cook healthy foods. I miss my niece, Dee so dearly. I got a lot of love from Dee before she passed. Dear lord I will see my loving niece one day in heaven. I pray you are getting some sunshine & resting in peace. Love you, my condolences to our families, Aunt Mary Chapman

My heart still hurts 💔 You are on my mind I look forward to talking to you & us hanging out together, I miss your pretty brown eyes, your beautiful smile, hair, the way you dress. Tell me what really happen to you ? God knows & my baby isn't coming back. You were my best friend & I wish I could hug & kiss you. Love you, my angel always thinking about you God's child RIH
