“ I remember the first day we met still to this day..it breaks my heart every day you cross my mind there is not a day I haven't thought about you. The first day you got out of prison we became best friends we talked all day and every day about the funniest things. I can't believe I can't just call you anymore....I don't get to hear your voice anymore. You can't share you love with others. I miss you..I promise I do...I love you...always and forever in my heart. I hope you watching over everyone that loved and cared about you like I did. I miss you ❤️

“ Diamonte Was a brother to me , He gave me tips with women & he challenged me to leave my comfort zone. I have an endless supply of memories and I'm so grateful that I was able to spend years in brotherhood with you . I first met Diamonte when I ran away from my house over not taking out the trash haha , Devon and him became my bestfriends and for years we got into a many adventures I owe so much of my teenage years to Diamonte . He took me to my first club, my first party , he gave me the Courage to ask out my first girlfriend inspired me to play football and that paid for my schooling. Writing this reminds me how much I'll miss you , you lived life to the fullest at the beat of your own drum never afraid to be the life of the party I know you're in heaven now cracking jokes and watching over my family and yours thank you D for the many smiles and memories you've left. I don't know a more good hearted person. My only regret is not valuing the time I had with you more.

“ I remember the first time I met Diamonte...he was about 7 years old and the first thing I noticed was his smile! How could a child have such an infectious smile? He was such a sweet, loving, person and a reminded me of an old-soul, wise beyond his years.

That day and his smile are forever embedded in my heart!

Diamonte, although it doesn't seem real that you're gone I know you're in good hands. I know that you and Uncle Gary will continue to watch over the family! You will continue to live on in all of us who love you so very dearly!

Thank you so much for the joy you brought to my life and the lives of all you touched!

Love always... Mica, Your Family by Love
