

Mr. Douglas H. Brown

August 20, 1961 - February 27, 2019

Douglas Hilton Brown was born on August 20th, 1961, in Indianapolis, Indiana, to the late James E. Brown Sr. and Doris J. Brown. He was the youngest of five children.

Douglas spent most of his childhood growing up in Newport News, Virginia. During his adolescent years, Douglas would work with his father doing automotive body repair work, which led him to seek higher learning. While in his high school years, Douglas received training through the Vo-Tech program and earned his certificate in Automotive Body and Paint Repair prior to graduating in high school in 1979.

Douglas possessed an excitement for speed and race cars. This would lead him in his younger years to embark upon driving and eventually building several race cars as a pastime adventure. Because of his ingenuity of building, repairing, and painting cars, many people would seek him out to repair their automobiles.

Douglas was affectionately known to his family, friends, and business acquaintances as “Delno, after him would be no moe”. While driving, Douglas would often run out of gas in his car. He would then ride his ten-speed bike to get gas from a nearby gas station, therefore, Douglas earned the nickname “Ten Speed”.

Though Douglas would go on to accomplish many things in his life, such as winning local “Body Building” as well as “Car Racing” contests, his greatest joys were the birth of his children, Tianet and Douglas. He was a very proud father and loved his children the best he knew how.

Douglas stayed faithful to his passion in life of repairing and painting automobiles until his health declined and he could no longer work. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away", on February 27th, 2019, in the wee hours of the morning, God called Douglas home to rest.

Douglas leaves to cherish his memories forever his children; Tianet and Douglas Johnson, four grandchildren; Da'Jon, August, Ocean Johnson, and Aniyah Brown, a sister; Janice (Rickey), two brothers; Danny (Gail), and James, and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. Douglas was preceded in death by one of his sisters, Annette Sanders.
