

Mrs. Eleusipa Van Emburgh

January 17, 1961 - November 9, 2019

Mrs. Eleusipa (Ellie) Van Emburgh, 58, wife James Van Emburgh, was called home to rest on Saturday, November 9, 2019, at Mary Immaculate Hospital in Newport News, Virginia.

"Our Queen has left us to be at peace with God leaving behind her husband, children, grandchildren, and her family back in the Republic of Panama and more friends than we can count. We all were fortunate to have her be a part of our lives and know we will miss her terribly. We know you are serving as one of Heaven's brightest angels even though we wish you could be here with us. You will forever be loved and know you are always in our thoughts and prayers. May your crown continue to sparkle and shine down upon us like the star that you are." -The Van Emburgh and Navarro Families

Please join us in comforting the Van Emburgh family by uplifting them with your prayers.

“ Mama Ellie, even though I've only always called you Mom. I'm honestly still in disbelief. So kind and generous. Fun loving and so full of life. I always told imelda.. She's thinks she's 17.. 😊Energetic, and so colorful. I will cherish the time growing up in your household and the times you comforted my mother. I remember us always dancing and laughing. That's how I will forever remember you now. Watch over all your children and Jim, (the love of your life). Your with the mom you missed and mine as angels. That makes me smile. I love you and can't wait to see you again. 🙏🙏🙏🌹
