

Mr. Eric D. Suiter

December 25, 1975 - July 28, 2009

Eric Delmarrio Suiter, 33, entered eternal rest and peace on Tuesday, July 28, 2009, at Mary Immaculate Hospital. He was born in Newport News, Virginia on December 25, 1975 to his mother Cecelia Suiter-Patton and father Thomas Crudup. Eric was affectionately known to many as "Suiterboy" and from the days of early youth, started on a journey with the gifts and talents that God had given him. Eric received his first turn table as a youngster and the rest is history! He became a well know Disc Jockey and was known by all as "DJ Big-E", creating "Phat Flavz" and "Still Shinnin". Eric had the mind of an entrepreneur and transformed his gifts, talents and hobbies into a full blown, money making master plan. God's plans lead Eric on a path of many possibilities. He acquired the gift of Graphic Design and with determination, became the CEO of "Suiterboy Graphics". Sitting idol was not an option. He was determined to make much, out of what started out as little, and believed that God would make a way out of no way. He knew nothing was possible without having God in his life. He seized every opportunity that God placed before him, in hopes' of guaranteeing a prosperous future for his son, Isaiah Suiter-Dove. As many know, Eric was a jack of all trades. He came across the opportunity to form an Ice Cream business and didn't hesitate twice. He then became the owner of "Suiter boy Treats". Throughout Eric's established career, many long term relationships were established. What started out as a business venture, turned into a road of life long friends, whom he loved and cherished dearly. Eric's humble and roving spirit gained him the love and support of the entire community. If you needed it, E had it and if he didn't have it, he said "I Got You" and would bend over backwards to help you. He was loved by many and was known for always having a kind word and giving the perfect advice. He was the only child to his mother, whom he loved whole heartedly, and in his last days, commended her for always being there! He so frequently called her his "buddy". He was motivated by his son, and that love was demonstrated through his consistent presence in his son's life. Not only were they father and son, but their relationship was that of buddies and best friends. His shadow, his "Little-E"! Eric touched many lives and definitely left an eternal mark while here on earth. We lost the love of our lives but Heaven gained an angel with a big heart. He leaves to cherish his memories: one son, Isaiah Cire Suiter-Dove and mother Cecelia Suiter-Patton, both of Newport News, VA, father and stepmother Thomas & Barbara Crudup of Essex, MD, paternal grandfather Redmond Crudup of Conway, Sc., one half brother Thomas Davis of Newport News, three stepbrothers James Jr., Eric & Shaun Patton all of Newport News; and a host of special Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and life long special friends that were close to his heart. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Jessie and Lucy Suiter, paternal grandmother Lucretia Britt and his stepfather James Patton Sr. "Weeping may endure for the night, But Joy Comes in the morning."

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 am, Tuesday, August 4, 2009 at Joynes Road Church of God, 31 Joynes Road Hampton, VA 23666. Viewing will be held from 12:00 noon until 7:00 pm on Monday, August 3, 2009 at the funeral Home. Interment will be held in Greenlawn Cemetery.

“ I am so torn to know that a good friend has gone to glory. I have known Eric since Middle and high school. Eric was an inspire to all who knew him. I wish i could have said these words to him so that he would know that i Miss him and most of all missed his friendship. R.I.P Eric no more pain and sorrow for you are happy and i am happy to know that you have touched my life. Love you and miss you.

“ Eric you taught me alot about being a person in High School. You was always there and giving the appropriate advice. You even gave me the name of my daughter when I had her in High School and told me that I was going to make someone proud. It's hard to say everything on writing when you have always been one phone call away. My God is an awesome God and he called you home. Death is powerful but living with the Father is greater. I know you are in heaven with my daughter playing with her and making her laugh as you always have. I remember your smile and you always said hey guy, or what's up buddy. But no one can say that like you. Your son will have a great void but the presence of where you are he knows that He will see you again. I love you Eric "Big-E Suiter and I will see you in heaven. And I leave this with everyone There is no greater love than the love of Jesus Christ we all have to render to him and don't wait until the last minute to recieves his blessing. If you turn over to him he will bless you and the blessing come in different forms. He is the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

“ Remembering You

Your time on earth seemed all too brief because I wanted you in my life forever. And although I really miss you, in my heart I know that you are at peace. Still, countless times throughout the day I find myself remembering you. Although I cannot see or hear you, I know that you are with me. I'll feel you in the warmth of the summer sun. I'll see you in the brilliance of autumn leaves. You'll be beside me in the peacefulness of a gentle snowfall and rejoice with me at the emergence of the first flowers of spring. I'm thankful for the times we shared and the priceless memories too; for those memories are a comfort now when I lovingly - Remember You.

“ My communication with Eric began when he sent me a friend request on a social website. I accepted it without thinking twice, not knowing I would ever actually speak with him one on one. We went from one social site, to another, and at the next site we became friends there as well. We would often email each other. We both had business in mind but it felt as though we were long time friends. My heart broke when I learned of his death. I pray that the family will find strength in the LORD. May GOD bless you and keep you.

“ I only knew Eric a few years but remember his energy and zest for life. He was a loving and devoted son and an adoring father. He left way too soon but left many memories for those he loved to cherish forever. His memory is forever in Mom's heart and in the twinkle in Isaiah's beautiful eyes. We miss you, Eric -- Go with God.

“*To the parents of Eric:
On behalf of the Williams family we wish to offer our deepest sympathy during your loss.
Eric is at peace now and at HOME with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We had him only for a season, but his legacy will live on through his son.
Big E as we all knew him in the 757; was asset to our community.
He will be truly missed.
