

Mr Erin S. Doyle

September 19, 1969 - March 31, 2026

In loving memory of Erin Sean Patrick Doyle. He was born on September 19, 1969, in Fairfax, Virginia. He entered eternal rest on March 31, 2026, at Sentara Hospital in Hampton, Virginia. He was a beloved son, grandson, nephew, brother, cousin, uncle, and friend.

Erin was born and lived in Northern Virginia during his early childhood, then moved to Johnstown, Pennsylvania. He graduated from Johnstown High School in 1988. He attended Hiram G. Andrews Center after high school. For a short time, he was employed with Lockheed Martin. He selflessly served as a caregiver for both of his maternal grandparents during their later years. In 1999, Erin relocated to Hampton, Virginia. For many years, he enjoyed spending time with his friends and family. He enjoyed watching many sports teams like the Norfolk Admirals ice hockey team, the Dallas Cowboys football team, and NASCAR racing. Erin enjoyed attending air shows and car shows. He loved things associated with the United States military. He loved watching classic movies from the 1980's and 1990's.

Erin is preceded in death by his mother, Beverly Blasko Sakaryan; Maternal grandparents, Joseph and Mary (Solomon) Blasko; Paternal grandparents, Thomas and Louise (Kolesar) Doyle.

He is survived by his father, Terrence Doyle; uncle, Joseph (Sharon) Blasko; siblings Dava (Cliff) Kauffman, Jason (Haley) Doyle, Rebecca (Aaron) Call, Kathleen (Dustin) Heinssen; cousins, David (Jennifer) Blasko, and Barri (Brent) Leach; nieces and nephews, Dianna Mancina, Logan Kauffman, Daniel Foltz, Jr., Declan Call, Olivia Heinssen, Mackensie Heinssen, Caleb Heinssen, and Emmie Heinssen; many other family members. Special family members and friends include Anne McNeil, Kathleen and Kenneth Killian, and Kimberly and David Seay.

Erin battled many medical challenges during his lifetime and developed many special relationships with the doctors and nurses who helped him manage his care.

He will be greatly missed, and his memories will be cherished.

A church service and burial will take place at Saint Francis Cemetery, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, in a few weeks.
