“ I can remember when I was a little girl and I used to go over my Aunt Hattie's house and I would see Ernest's big truck and I thought who in the world is driving this big truck? And then I saw him. Wow what a tall man and I said I am never gonna make him mad. But once I met him, he was really nice to me and always bought me something when he came by...if it was candy -he always said ...don't tell your momma and he often told me to leave them little boys alone -you got plenty of time for them when you finish school. May you rest now my cousin and I hope the little Angels in Heaven see just how special you are and the influences you made on people's lives just by a few kind words. Always in my heart but never forgotten, cousin Sheila

“ My brother Ernest known by the name "Joe Strings" will truly be miss buy everyone who knew him. He stood 7 feet tall, I can remember him having to bend his head to get in my house doorway. When he drove my car the knees where up high at the steering wheel.

He was always looking up, I would ask how is the weather up there? Now is up in heaven resting peacefully with plenty of room to walk around Gods heaven all day.

Rest my 7 feet tall brother

“ Ernest, 'aka' Joe string, because he was a tall 7ft. guy. I can remember a memorable occasion when I was a senior in High School. We drove out to LA, in a 18 wheeler. And let me tell you, he knew how to handle that rig.
I'll miss him. The last month with him really gave me an opportunity to know him a little better.
He's at Peace now! I'll miss him.
