“ Teresa and Family, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She must have been a sweet, loving and respected woman because her children that I grew up with have always been such good people. I last saw Teresa when my mom was at Riverside Convalescent and it was so good to see her beautiful smile. I was sorry to learn of Jimmie's death as we went to school together and he was always so funny and making us kids laugh. I pray for you comfort. Be encouraged and blessed.
