Since you've been gone last year, November 27, 2023, a day before your natal day, GOD called you home. It's more than a month now, I am still in deep shock. Everybody were so surprised how this wonderful lady who had been so good so hardworking so dedicated to the world and study of Linguists practices, both theoretical and in practice. It is with deep, deep heartfelt sorrow when I heard about her demise on November 27th, 2023.

Extending my warm heartfelt prayers and sympathies once more, for the Eternal and peaceful repose of her beautiful Soul May she rest in peace in GOD's heavenly court. May GOD grant graces of strength, courage and console the bereaved family in this time of deep loss, grief and mourning. You will always be remembered in prayers for the Departed and offered mass intentions for our Beloved DR. EVA STITT. Dr. Stitt wherever you are we will always be inspired by your dedication in the field of linguistic study and practice, and communications, your charming sweet smile, your candidness, full of hope and life most of all that truly touched my well being was when you found me a fellow Filipina like you across the miles bringing out the best in me to help those who are in need with other fellow Filipinos globally.

Another words of wisdom from you Dr. Stitt when you mentioned an "Interpreter's life maybe quite lonely working remotely far and wide, but we do possess the grace to change the lives of many in any given predicament when it is truly necessary to act as Language Cultural Brokers," especially for the LLD's low language visible minorities group, that struck my mind so much. Dr. Eva Stitt your legacy continues you will always be cherished for the wisdom and love you had imparted to us all, you will forever hold a special place in our hearts and minds as we continue to serve as Linguists helping those who are in need where we are whatever Life's circumstances be. Sharing with you all in love, warm regards, kind thoughts and prayers. ❤️🙏❤️🙏🥺🌸🍀🌿🌎

“ I am very sad to hear the news about the passing of Dr. Stitt.

*Eva and I had a wonderful working relationship. We worked together several times over the years, highlighting the growing need for Behavioral Health education in interpreter training programs, particularly in the area of National Certification for medical interpreters. In her honor, I hope to continue the work that Eva was so deeply committed to and will truly miss her invaluable perspective and her warmth and friendship. My condolences to all of her loved ones and may her memory be of a blessing to us all.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Eva's passing. While I have only worked with Eva for 2 and a half years in our virtual environment, she was always pleasant to talk with and meet with. I remember a couple really great dishes she brought to our in person meetings and holiday gatherings- she made terrific Lumpia. She also was such a great educator and advocate for those new to our country and helped me understand the plight of what many face. Eva will be missed by me and many.
