

Ms. Evita Natassha Wilkins

August 15, 1994 - August 29, 2021

Evita Natassha Wilkins, better known as Fatty, was born on August 15, 1994 at Riverside Regional Medical Center in Newport News, Va. She was the second child born to Theresa Wilkins and Darryl Cooper Sr. She attended Heritage High School but later graduated from Menchville High School in 2012.

Evita was a very loving, goofy and feisty all in one. Her personality commanded a room. Evita loved to draw. Her artistic abilities were top-level. She was a New York Giants fan. Her artist of all time was Michael Jackson. In 2015, she welcomed her first precious gift, Zion. She was thrilled to be a mother and in 2018 she welcomed Zakai. Her boys were her world. Any and everything she did was for them. She always had them with her no matter what.

Evita was a devoted mother, daughter, sister, granddaughter, aunt, niece, cousin, and friend. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She always finding different foods to eat. She was a manager in training at Zaxbys. Evita was called home on August 29, 2021. She will be missed so much. She leaves to cherish her memory, her two sons (Zion and Zakai), mother(Theresa), father (Darryl), grandmother (Pearlie), brothers (Oliver, Dwayne, and Darryl Jr.), sisters (Armanda, Casondra, Nakia, Sharon) brother in law (Derrick), sisters-in-law (Vanessa and Michelle), nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles, a host of cousins and friends and more.
