“ I worked with Mrs. Huggins years ago. She was a beautiful person and wonderful friend. I shared with her that I want to school and graduated with Barbara, but she could not talk enough about all her children, what love she gave. Mrs. Huggins life is a witness that tribulations and trials with come but there is always joy in the morning. Rest in God Mrs. Huggins because you have been so faithful, you earned your crown in glory. It was such a pleasure to have known such a woman of God as yourself. I send my condolences to the family, but be of good cheer, your love one has fought a excellent fight in this earthly life and now she is with her savior.
