

Mrs. Felina Yavette Hinnant

June 20, 1969 - January 1, 2026

Felina Hinnant, better known to all as LeLe, passed away on January 1, 2026, at the University of Maryland with family by her side until God called her home.

Felina was born in Newport News, VA, where she graduated from Ferguson High School. Felina started her career at Avon Company until she relocated to Capital Heights, MD, to begin a new career in the nursing field.

At Kaiser Permanente, she spent 22 years, and then continued thriving as a nurse supervisor with MedStar of Maryland until her illness.

Proceeding her in death was her grandmother, who loved her dearly, Addie Mae Mitchell. Felina will be remembered lovingly by her husband Tobias Hinnant, son Tramon Cephas, mother Mary Cephas, father Fred Cephas, devoted sister Adrennea Cephas, loving brothers Edward Knightner, Stacy Cephas, Bradley Cephas(Kiara), grandchildren Tramell Cephas, Zhamaria Cephas. Stepdaughters Jasmine Hinnant and Sydney Hinnant. Also survived by great aunts, Elouise McCray(Willie), Johnnia Mae Mitchell, and special cousin Sherita Jenkins. Friends who especially came to love her, LaWann Holley, Stacy Corbin, and a host of relatives, cousins, and friends.

*I remember when you relocated to Md and you said Jen I'm tired of having my mama get an apartment for me. I said why is that and you said because I have bad credit. I said girl we can fix that. I told you what to do and you handled your business. You worked hard to build a career and to buy your first home just as you planned. All I can hear is You sayin Jen, Jen I got to work to make this money..Jen and grinning from ear to ear! You and your sweet spirit will truly be missed💔Rest easy cousin Lele💔 We love you!!
