*We are so sorry for your loss. Frank was more than just our go to handyman and electrician .
Such a fun conversationalist and boy did he love our pups.
He is missed over here at our our home.
Honestly I kept putting off looking up a possible obituary because I was afraid I would find exactly what I did find 💔.
All the best to all of Franks family.*

“ Uncle Frank, where do I begin. Since I was a little girl hanging around when you started having your family I have so many great memories. Some that might have scared me a little cause of my age and not knowing anything about little Frankie health issues. I will hold on dear to all of these memories. You and Auntie have always loved me like your own. I love yall all so very much and wish we had way more time together. We will see each other again one day. Just be our guardian angel for now and continue to help guide all of us on the right path. I'll miss you forever and ever. Love always Nik Nik
