“ I just learned of Rick’s passing and am very sad to hear it. Rick was my tech support person in the Department of Psychiatry and the only person there who seemed competent to support work on an Apple product. He was invariably responsive and helpful, and he was pleasant and patient. I know it must have been devastating for family, close friends and colleagues to have lost such a wonderful member of the community. May perpetual light shine upon him.

“ Rick will be missed in so many ways. He was a kind, gentle soul who I so greatly admired in his ability to be himself. He was a valued colleague and coworker and exhibited patience with me and my limited technical abilities. He faced health challenges with a great attitude and was a lesson for many.
Please know that Rick made a difference in many, many people's lives. I am so saddened that I will not see him in one of his favorite Star Trek jackets or chat with him again.
With warm thoughts to his family and friends.

“ Rest In Peace my friend. I was shocked to hear of your untimely passing. Your shining light was snuffed way to soon and you will be sadly missed. I worked with Rick for the past 7 years and got to know him well. He was an incredibly talented artist who could sketch a beautiful drawing and made it look effortless. He make props, costumes, masks and a myriad of creative items that he loved doing for cosplays events and his haunts. My sincerest condolences to the Haines family in NJ and to everyone who loved him and cared about him. Please do reach out to me if there is anything I can do for the family.
