

Mr. Gene A. Mitchell Jr.

November 16, 1978 - January 2, 2013

Gene A. Mitchell, Jr. 34, passed away January 2, 2013 at Sentara Careplex Hospital. He was born in Hampton, VA. on November 16, 1978. He received his education from the public school system in Roanoke Rapids, NC. He went on to further his education in culinary arts in Arlington, VA. He then embarked on a journey into entrepreneurship with his catering company, "Gene's Fine Dining and Event Cooking."

Gene was a devoted husband, father, brother, cousin, and friend to all. He was sure to keep anyone smiling with his sense of humor. He was also one of the most compassionate, gentle, and humble individuals you would get to meet. You could always find Gene doing one of four things; fishing, feeding, watching football or hanging out with his family. He joined Word In Season Ministry in Virginia Beach, VA, where he was quickly learned, loved, and was willingly involved.

Gene was preceded in death by his mother, Evelyn Mitchell; father Gene A. Mitchell, SR, and his sister, Tonya Mitchell. Left to cherish his memory are his wife, Manica (Sumler) Mitchell; son, Antonio Saunders; brother Darius Mitchell; maternal grandmother, Annie Faulcon; and paternal grandmother, Estell Mitchell.

Viewing will be held from 1:00 pm until 8:00 pm on Friday, January 11, 2013 at the M.E. Fisher Funeral Home.

A funeral service will be held at 1:00 pm on Saturday, January 12, 2013 at the funeral home Chapel.

“ I've known Gene (pookie) since he was a young child. Always a humble child, he felt like one of my nephews, because he was always at my house with my son and cousins. May he rest in peace.

“ As part of Weldon High School class of 1997, I would like to extend my condolences to the Mitchell family. Gene was a very nice person, when you needed a nice laugh you can count on Gene for that.

To his wife and family keep your head up and keep God in your life and everything will be alright.
