

Ms. Gladys Mae Saddler

October 30, 1926 - May 5, 2021

Ms. Gladys Mae Saddler, age 94, passed peacefully in her home on May 5, 2021. She was born in Union County, North Carolina to the late James J. Horne and Minnie Salone Caudle Horne. Before her retirement, Ms. Gladys worked for Peninsula Agency on Aging caring for the elderly. She also was a long-time employee of Smith's Pharmacy Drug Store and independently contracted herself for housekeeping services.

Ms. Gladys was a member of Gethsemane Baptist Church, Newport News Va. but often attended different churches with her daughters. "Momma", was the name used by her six children. She kept a safe and tidy household for six children that she raised as a single parent (three biological children and three grandchildren). She is known by her children as being completely supportive and very loyal. Her strong work ethic was passed on and received. She was preceded in death by her daughter Brenda Marie Saddler, and will be missed dearly by her surviving children; Maurice S. Augburn, Veronica Teresa Burnett (Terry D. Burnett), Keith A. Saddler, Monroe J. Saddler, Norton Richards Saddler, Anthony L. Richards; Grandchildren: Corey D. Augburn (Rachele Augburn), Derek C. Augburn, Morgan B. Burnett, Taylor D. Burnett, Monique N. Saddler, Anahla Brenda Saddler, Norton Allen Saddler, and other nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Her quiet but strong spirit leaves a lasting memory of a Mom that will be celebrated. "Just A Closer Walk With Thee", was her song. Now she is walking with Jesus!

Dear Family, That was a Beautiful Tribute to Aunt Gladys. Today is my Mother's Birthday your Aunt Bernice, and the Horn Sisters are reunited once again in a Heavenly Place with there other 5 siblings and Parents. Oh What A Time They Must Be Having. I feel that they were just waiting for the baby girl Aunt Gladys to arrive thru those Pearly Gates. Praise Be To God! Amen!!! God Bless You and Keep You Cousins. Love Anita C. Jordan-Duckett
