“ Loving Memory of Auntie Gloria

Auntie Gloria wasn't everyone's aunt—she was mine, and I thank God every day for the gift of her love. Her life shone with the light of Jesus, and her heart overflowed with kindness, laughter, and faith that lifted everyone around her. She walked with God in every season, trusting Him, loving deeply, and showing us all what it means to live with grace.

Her love for her daughter Chrissy and her granddaughter Briana was endless, and her bond with my mom, Pat, was a sisterhood rooted in God's goodness. And to me, she was my Auntie, my favorite, a blessing I will carry forever. Even as we grieve, we rejoice knowing she rests in the arms of Jesus, whole and at peace, and that her spirit will continue to shine in our hearts and lives.
