“ Audrey,

I know that you will be just fine because I know you know that your dear Mother has completed her journey here and is back home with the Father who sent her here to be the Mother to you and your siblings, although we do miss our love ones because we love them so much. She is in no more pain or discomfort, not needing anything but enjoying all that our Father has said would be waiting for us when we return home. Now how glorious is that!! You asked me to keep you and your family in prayer and you know I am doing just that and even though you told me that you celebrated her life last Thursday, I want you to know it is still okay to cry. I did, but remember that "our strength may fail, but our God will not." "... I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you: I will uphold you with My righteous right hand." Isaiah 41:10 NIV

"Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?'"

John 11:25-26 NIV

My thoughts and prayers are with you. With Love, Scherry D. Meinhardt (I was your roommate in rehab and you watched out for me when I could not. Thank you so much!)
