

Mr. Herbert Hill

July 2, 1938 - April 11, 2018

Deacon Herbert Hill slept away peacefully on Wednesday, April 11, 2018, after a long illness at Bayside Convalescent Center, Poquoson, Virginia. He was born on July 2, 1938 to the late Curtis and Vernell Hill of Newport News, Virginia.

Raised in the Newport News area, Herbert loved sharing his knowledge of the history of Newport News. He attended Huntington High School of Newport News. He continued his education at Woodrow Wilson Culinary School, Fishersville, where he became a chef. He loved to cook.

Deacon Hill received Jesus as his Lord and Savior at an early age. He enjoyed going to church, beating his tambourine to the rhythm of the songs, testifying of God's goodness and most of all he enjoyed listening to Bishop Parker preaching and Lady Parker singing. Their preaching was an inspiration to him.

On December 23, 1993, Herbert met whom he called the love of his life. Herbert fell in love and married his bride Gladys Jackson Hill. They had a wonderful marriage and lived a wonderful life. They were very happy. Gladys loved her Herbert and Herbert loved her too.

Deacon Hill is preceded in death by his sister, Rosa Jones of Newport News.

He leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife Evangelist Gladys Hill of the home. One brother Alvin Hill (Martha) of Williamsburg, Virginia. One son, Jonas (Sharon) Hill of Newport News. Two daughters Wanda Whitaker (David) and Jennifer Hill both of Newport News, Virginia. Herbert was loved in the community by all who knew him. He expressed a spirit of peace. Herbert, also showed his love towards his four step children, whom he loved dearly. Carla (Jerome) Gant, Carol (Doug) Tynes, of Newport News. Darris (Jimmy) Graham, of Fayetteville, North Carolina and William Jackson, daughter-in-law, Minnie Jackson (the late Jerry Jackson) of Newport News, Virginia and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

Please join us in comforting the Hill family by uplifting them with your prayers.
