

Mr. Horace C. Harmon

August 17, 1939 - February 23, 2020

Horace C. Harmon was born on August 17, 1939, to the late Horace Harmon and Sarah Giddens-Ayres. On Sunday, February 23, 2020, Horace received his golden wings and mounted into glory.

Horace was educated in the Northampton County Public Schools. He later moved to Norfolk, Va., and started his own landscaping company.

He worked in the District of Columbia and Maryland suburbs for over 34 years with several major grocery chains before retiring. He then moved to Hampton, Va., where he worked in the Hampton Public Schools System for over 17 years.

Horace met and fell in love with Doris M. Wheeler as a young man. They were married in December 1966 and moved to Washington, DC. They have celebrated life together for over 53 years. They have a daughter, Michelle A. Harmon, and a son, Horace M. Harmon (Kim Watkins). Three grandchildren highlighted his life, Kiara Lee-Harmon, Horace M. Harmon, Jr., and Jerell Matthew Harmon.

He was preceded in death by his parents and five sisters; Shirley Ayres, Rosie Ann Harmon, Stella Mae Coston, Jessie Ella Chandler, and Elizabeth Coston.

He leaves one sister, Effie Church of Halifax, DE; a brother-in-law, three sisters-in-law, a "special brother-in-law", Louis Poulsen; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and close friends. He has a special nephew, Ashby Harmon (Elizabeth), who spent lots of time encouraging, talking sports, and sharing life with him.

Horace truly loved his family, was dedicated to hard work, to the Redskins, and to the Washington Nationals Baseball Team. He was a wonderful father, grandfather, and family man.

“ Dear Doris and Family, It is with love and heartfelt prayer that we send this note of condolence to You. We remember the quiet gentleman, Horace, who along with You, opened Your heart and home to many travelers. Your kindness will always be appreciated. It is with these special moments, and so many more, that we stop to pay homage to the Harmon Family.

When a loved one transitions, we shed tears of quiet joy for the life well lived and loved. Hold fast to Your Faith and know that our loving Father God will comfort and protect You always. To die an earthly death in the Lord, is to gain an eternal, heavenly life.

With Sincere Sympathy,

Jocelyn Hawkins, Sharon Hawkins Griffin and Family.

“ Mrs. Harmon, Michelle, Michael and family,

I am thinking of you with heartfelt sympathy! Wishing you feelings of healing, comfort, strength and peace during this painful time.

I know the Lord with carry you through this difficult time. You taught me as a young lady God’s word is real. “To be absent from the body, is to be present with the lord.” Mr. Harmon earned his heavenly wings.

I hope you feel the love that surrounds you, now and always. May you find comfort in knowing you are not alone in your sorrow.
