“ As I sit back and remember all the great things you have done from preaching the word daily, to trying to get the youth to get right by God, finding the good in everyone, and how you use to open your home up to complete strangers for church service and bible study. I will hold on to all those memories we shared big cuz. I know the gates of heaven have already opened up for you. I love you and you will be truly missed. To his wife, I thank you for taking great care of my cousin in sickness and health!! We love you! ~Gladys Lewis Harrison
