I'm so sorry for your loss my prayers are with the family I didn't know Ms.Bryant personally, but me witnessing that day my heart has been heavy. My spirit has been disturbed it's like I lost a family member myself that day. Words can't express the pain I felt when I watched the news that night. My heart goes out to her children and the family genuinely I am so so sorry for your loss. I know no amount of words can ease the pain, but I pray that God grants the family comfort. I just want to let the family know that I am really sorry my heart is heavy for y'all. I may not know the family, but I know Ms.Jean was a good person especially the way her Walmart family speaks of her. May God bless y'all.

“ I am still in disbelief! I met Jean in 2003. On our childrens first day of school, the bus dropped my daughter off at the wrong place, every other parent picked up their child and left. But Thank God, Jean did not. When I went to that bus stop to see if I could intercept the bus there, no one was there but Jean and her daughter. She had put my baby in her car and tried to chase the bus driver to let her know. When She was unable to get her attention, Jean went back and waited for someone to come. I was so grateful that the Lord put Jean there that day. That is the caring and compassionate lady that I will always remember. My deepest condolences go out to her family. May the Lord comfort you all and give you the strength you need to carry on.
