“ Jeff Pigatt RIP!!!
I was up at 6:30am cooking on the grill, I'm gonna miss those days with you cooking on the grill. As I was grilling this morning I look up to the sky a tear shed yet when I turn to look to the left a beautiful butterfly landed in your chair!!

“ Jeffery was my next door neighbor. We shall many laughs together, he was the best in asking the computer questions, he always could carry conversation and would put in a lie and having you looking dumbfounded because Jeff could tell a story part truth and part lie and when you figure out the lie part he always had a big laugh about it. To the Pigatt. family sorry for your loss. Jeff thanks for the times we share together, the cookout, movies, dog sitting Floyd, thrift store shopping, playing spades, advice on forgiveness, walking to the store, bus rides around the city, how to prep and cook large meals, and most of all you encourage me to seek God first. RIP
